Saturday October 21, 1989 7:30 P.M.

Dear Patrons, Supporters, Fans, and Guests;

On behalf of the members of the Chattanooga Choo Choo Chorus and the East View United Methodist Church, we welcome you as our guests for this evening. As you relax to the sounds of harmony and thrill to the spirit of familiar patriotic tunes, we hope that you enjoy this way of keeping these old songs alive.

East View church and the Chattanooga Choo Choo Chorus thank you for your contribution to their individual projects.

The Chattanooga Choo Choo Chorus will contribute its share of the profits to the Institute of Logopedics for Children in Wichita, Kansas for the correction of speech defects in children. East View's project will be a new fellowship hall.

We thank the Chattanooga chorus for their performance tonight and for their dedication to keeping barber-shop style singing alive in America.

East View United Methodist Church invites you to worship with them if you do not have a church, we are informal and warm. The morning service on Sunday begins at 9:30 A.M., with Sunday School following.

Thank you for supporting us tonight. Sit back and enjoy some good clean entertainment.

Jack Robertson
Pastor, East View U.M.C.
